John's Boys.

I saw them coming down the quiet street,
Holding each other's hand and slowly walking,
I heard the voice of one, 'twas very sweet,
He seemed to lead the way and do the talking.
I waited till they came to where I stood,
Then stopped them with a word and friendly smile
And asked, "Who is this pretty fellow in a hood?"
He laughed and whispered, "I am papa's
child."
"And who are you, my little man in grey,
With such a lovely face and eyes of brown?"
"My name's Ned, my dad's name's Ned, my dad's name's Ned,
A goin' to fix my papa in de town!"
"Both runaways? Then children come with me
And I will give you cake and lots of toys.
What are your names?" They answered in great glee:
"Dad! Al! Ben! Don, but papa says Don's boys."
Dear little lots you never will again
Find papa in the town; he went away
To rest amid the flowers of the plain.
They do not know he died but yesterday.
I kissed their lips and filled their hands with toys
And sent them to their mamma with this message given:
"My friend, with tender patience lead John's
boys"
That they may find their papa safe in heaven,

THE RICH SANDY VAL- LEY.

A Section of the State Abounding in Coal, Iron, Gas, Oil and Timber.

The arrival in the city of Louisville of the train of cars from Mid-dleborough, containing specimens of the valuable minerals of that locality, brings to mind another section of our State unsurpassed, if equaled, in the quantity and quality of coal, iron, oil, gas and timber. There is no doubt that Louisville has been equal to any emergency in the improvement in the interest of the city. She has defied power and has gone ahead
in the construction of the Kentucky and Indiana bridge; the construction of the Louisville Southern, and expects to reach Bettysville in the near future. Some of her enterprising people contemplate constructing a road from Mount Sterling, by way of Prestonburg, to White Post, on the Tug Fork of Sandy, twenty-eight miles east of Prestonburg, and there connect with the Norfolk and Westtern, now being built down the Tug across to, and down Twelve Pole to the Ohio river; then down to Ironton, Mo. From Mount Sterling to Hinton, West Virginia, by way of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley, the road forms a half circle, whereas the road of which we have been speaking is almost an air line
from Mount Sterling to a point twelve miles south of Hinton, and the distance saved will be about one hundred miles. This saving of itself will make that road a trunk line.
In Menifee county there is both coking coal and the iron ore. The seams of the cannal coals in Morgan and Magoffin counties are three and one-half feet thick. The prominent seams are the Colvin, Cassard and Vernon, which are very superior coals, not surpassed in excellence but by about two seams of the State. Both cannel and bituminous are between Salyersville and Prestonburg, and of fine quality and thickness. But from Prestonburg to White Post the coking coals prevail, of feet in thickness. Here you will appreciate any remark at the outset, that the road will ultimately pay immensely. The iron ores of Prestonburg, Prof. Proctor said to me, were the best of the State—45 per cent. of pure metal.
There is another road which will connect the Big Stone Gap northward, passing westward of Pound Gap and across to the head of Boone's Fork and Mill Stone branches of the Kentucky river on the head of Beaver and down to the Sandy and on to Prestonburg; thence to Willard Point, on the Newport News and Mississippi Valley Railroad, from which the Eastern Kentucky line completed at Riverport, on the Ohio river.
This too, will be a trunk line from Kentucky to North Carolina. Chatter-box is completed from Catlettsburg to Richardson, sixty miles, where it connects with the three C's, which runs up within twenty miles of Prestonburg.
The Kentucky Midland contemplates an extension from Paris to Bath county, thence to the canal coal fields, upon the Elk Fork of Licking, and out to Colvin and other fine coals of Magoffin; thence to Prestonburg.
Please look upon the railroad map of Kentucky, gotten up by our Railroad Commissioners, and see for yourself
the centrality of Prestonsburg and the lines of roads contemplated centering and crossing there.

In my opinion the most valuable coking coal fields of America are in Floyd and Pike counties, parallel with Hinton mountain, and upon Elkhorn and Shelby counties and their branches. In this field there are 150,000 acres from six to eight feet thick of the finest coking coal known to history.

The analyses have been often made
at Connellsville and Lexington, Ky., by Prof. Peter, the latter place.
These tests prove it superior to all,
and so reported time and again by our State Geologist, Prof. Proctor.
I think it will be but a short time until the streams I have named and their branches will be studded with the homes of the operators of coking ovens and iron furnaces and branch railroads to the trunk line for transportation of coke of the three C's,
and the South Atlantic and Ohio,
every car of which will pass through Prestonburg, which town is situated in a beautiful bottom and bend of the Big Sandy river, fifteen feet above
the highest overflow, and at the base of a mountain in which there is a four-foot seam of the finest coal.
There are above Prestonburg some three hundred miles of streams, branches of the Big Sandy, upon which there stands the finest of timber, which can be floated down to the town, and therefore Prestonburg is to be the lumber market of that end of the State. Besides the valleys are rich and the mountain sides likewise rich, and growing the finest of timber.

Not since the war have you received anything from me for your paper, and I write this to call attention to long neglected, but of the richest and most important and valuable portions of Kentucky. XXXX.
LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 5.

An Important Matter.

Druggists everywhere report that the sales of the Restorative Nervine—a nerve food and medicine—are astonishing; exceeding anything they ever had, while it gives universal satisfaction in headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, backache, poor memory, fits, dizziness,
etc. L. Burton & Co., Troy, N. Y.; Amberg & Murphy, of Battle Creek, Mich.; C. B. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind., and hundreds of others state that they never handled
any medicine, which sold so rapidly or gave such satisfaction. Trial bottles of this great medicine and book on Nervous Diseases, free at J. W.
Gayle's, who guarantees and recommends it.

An Old Sore Healed.

I had a painful, annoying sore on my leg, near the knee, that troubled me for over two years. I tried various remedies, but the sore, instead of healing up, continued to grow larger, and to cause me more pain
until I began to look for a cure. Through the advice of a friend, who was cured of a similar trouble, I took S. S. S., and in a few weeks was cured entirely. The sore healed up, and there is not even a scar left to mark the place.

PECULIAR INFATUA- TION.

Different Methods of following the Infatuation
"Love One Another."

Do men ever fall in love with each other? Women do. Not long ago a young woman in New Jersey was married to a youthful laborer on her father's farm. Sometime afterward it was discovered that the husband was a female; the young wife refused, however, though earnestly entreated
by her friends, to give up her chosen consort. The strangest part of the discovery was the fact that the bride knew her husband was a woman before she was led to the altar.

If men do not exhibit this strange infatuation for one of their own sex,
they at least often-times give evidence of the fact that they love one another. There are many instances on record where one man has owed his life to another.

It is a proud possession—the knowledge that one has saved a precious life. Meriden, Conn., is the home of such a happy man. John H. Preston,
of that city, July 11th, 1890, writes:
"Five years ago I was taken very sick, I suffered the most excruciating torments, and one and all called it a complication of diseases. I was sick four years, taking prescriptions prescribed by these same doctors, and I truthfully state I never expected to get any better. At this time I commenced to have the most terrible pains in my back, and a neuralgia of the head.
Mr. R. T. Cook, of the firm of Curtis
& Cook, advised me to try Warner's Safe Cure, as he had been troubled the same way and it had effected a cure for him. I bought six bottles, took the medicine as directed and am today a well man. I am sure no one ever had a worse case of kidney and liver trouble than I had. Before this I was always against proprietary medicines, but not now, oh, no."
Friendship expresses itself in very peculiar ways sometimes; but the true friend is the friend in need.

Nice Cattle.

Mr. Noel, of Franklin county, bought 100 cattle in this county, last week, that weighed from 1,100 to 1,200 lbs.; at 25 cents and 31 cents per pound.—Henry County Local.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs
a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience
of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Syrup Company.

The Grand Opening.

Messrs. Crutcher & Starks celebrated the grand opening of their new store, on Main street, Monday, in elegant style. Their splendid new stock of goods was tastefully arranged, the large show windows beautifully dressed and the interior of the building decorated with flowers. Selbert's Orchestra discoursed music from the platform of the rear of the store.

crowd which streamed into the store during the day and evening, and the young people took advantage of the splendid music to engage in the mazy dance upon the second floor. From the opening hour until late at night the house was filled with a busy throng, making purchases or enjoying the beautiful sights.

The store is a magnificent affair, the finest in the city—not too fine for Frankfort, for there is nothing too good for the dear old town—and our people should be proud of it and encourage the enterprising proprietors with a large share of patronage, to the end that their example may be followed by more of our enterprising firms and the city filled with fine business houses. There is no danger that the prices upon goods will be made too high, for Messrs. Crutcher & Starks are determined to make theirs the "People's Store," where goods will be sold at one low price to rich and poor alike.

The firm is now composed of the only Col. D. C. Crutcher, Messrs. John P. and Ike Starks. The first named gentleman will still have immediate charge of the store in this city, Mr. John P. Starks will continue to manage the Oak Hall establishment in Louisville, and Mr. Ike Starks will shortly take charge of the store the firm will open in Lexington. It is a thorough business combination and one that is bound to succeed.

The working force of the establishment here is composed as follows: Mr. John S. Cannon, cashier and book-keeper; Mr. W. T. Euhanks, manager of the shoe department, with Miss Pearl Pollett, assistant; Messrs. Bert Johnson, Frank Cannon, J. W. Rogers, Thomas Crutcher and Sam Parrent, salesmen. All of whom are polite and accommodating, and take pleasure in waiting upon all, whether they wish to buy or only to look at the immense stock of handsome clothing.

Return of an Old Favorite.

The Golden Dramatic Company will appear at the Opera House on the evenings of the 29th and 30th. Our older citizens, who were players twenty-five years ago, will remember Mr. Martin Golden as a member of the McCauley, Golden & Weaver Combination, which played several engagements at the old Metropolitan Hall, which stood where the Old Fellows Temple now stands on St. Clair street, back in the 60's. Barney McCauley, or McCauley, as he spelled it the latter days of his life, was the leading man of the company; Bella Golden the leading lady, Martin Golden the heavy man, Henry A. Weaver the old man, McKee Rankin first walking gentleman, C. E. Eskin second walking gentleman, Harry Davis comedian, Mrs. H. A. Weaver old lady, and several others whose names we do not now remember. This was a strong combination and played to good houses here, although their engagements were for one and two weeks at a time. Barney McCauley everyone remembers, as he appeared here only a short time before his death, as "Uncle Dan," the Messenger from Jarvis Section," and McKee Rankin has gained quite a reputation in "Rip Van Winkle" and other plays. Mr. H. A. Weaver was here a few weeks since with Julia Marlowe, but Mr. Golden has not been here since he supported Mrs. Lander, some eighteen years ago. He is the same splendid actor as on his former visits, although time has frosted his brow, and carries a first-class company with him, in fact it is said to be one of the best on the road. Miss Emma Butler, who was with Ellie Elder last season, as leading lady, and with George C. Boni, since the season before in the same capacity, is this year with Mr. Golden's company, filling the parts which have heretofore been taken by his most estimable wife, Mrs. Bella Golden, who is confined to her home by an injury received in Texas last year. Mr. Harry Robinson, the comedian, is a quiet character, original in every motion, word and action. He has captivated the houses throughout the season with the least apparent difficulty. He has been known to Mr. Golden since his childhood and is a favorite of the old actors as well as in every town and city where he appears.

A splendid orchestra and silver band of twelve pieces accompanies the troupe and will give a street parade each afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will execute a Knight of Pythias drill, which is very fine.

On Wednesday evening "Our Bachelor" will be presented and on Thursday evening "Col"

Mr. James Matt... "wood worker" at Messrs. Wakefield & Choate's planing mill, was so unfortunate yesterday morning as to get his left hand caught in the machine and have the thumb cut off and the fingers so badly damaged that Dr. E. E. Hume, who dressed his injuries, thinks they will have to be amputated. Mr. Matthews is the most unfortunate of men, as this is the third time he has been injured by the same machine, having lost portions of his fingers in the former accidents.

Educational.

We have been visiting the schools of the county this week and last, and are glad to notice the increased attendance in all the schools visited, and also to see the improvement in the work of the teachers.

The meeting of the county teachers last Saturday was a grand success in every particular. There was a large number of teachers in attendance, and every one enjoyed themselves. Let every teacher be present at Bridgeport on the 3d Saturday, the 15th of November next.

The programme will appear in the next issue of this paper. It will be a good one.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association convened at Forks of Elkhorn school-house, District No. 1, Saturday, November 19, 1900. Meeting called to order by Pres. C. H. Parrent.

Prayer by Prof. Jordan, of Bagdad.

Song, "Rest in Jesus' Arms," by choir, led by Prof. E. R. Jones.

The Association was then made to feel at home, and their very hearts throbed with gratitude by listening to an address of welcome delivered by Mr. T. J. Lucas. The address was from the heart to the point; reached the heart and the point, and would have done honor to one more advanced in years.

Song, "Sound the Jubilee," by choir.

Etymology was then discussed by Prof. Jordan in a very able and satisfactory manner. The way in which he presented and handled his subject showed him to be full of etymology and a master indeed in presenting a subject to others.

A few other members and visitors "bobbed up and down" on the same subject, but added very little to what had already been said.

At 1 p. m. the Association adjourned for dinner. This was one of the most interesting features of the occasion. It was a dinner such as we don't meet with every day. It consisted of all the delicacies that the elite hands of Elkhorn are capable of getting up, and if you were ever out there you know what that means.

The Association re-assembled after dinner and resumed business. 1st. A song by the choir, led by E. R. Jones, after which the regular programme was disposed of. The exercises were enlivened by singing by the choir, who were encircled several times. Mrs. Dr. Williams gave a class exercise in syntax, which was very interesting. The young ladies acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner.

The officers recommended by the committee, appointed at the "Institute," for the "Reading Circle," were unanimously elected, viz: W. P. Marsh, President; Miss Maggie Innes, Vice-President; Miss Lou B. Cromwell, Secretary.

After prayer by E. R. Jones the Association adjourned to meet at Bridgeport on the 15th of November next.

The following teachers of the county were present. There may have been others whom the Secretary failed to get, which, in so large a crowd, was excusable: D. G. Wiley, Jasper Dalton, Leonna Jett, Rachel Cromie, Maggie Innes, Maggie Downey, Loren Young, Mrs. Dr. Williams, Elizabeth Hahn, Lou B. Cromwell, E. R. Jones, H. M. Polsgrove, C. H. Parrent, Robert Graham, Ella Baker, Nora O'Connor and H. F. Jordan, Shelby county. H. M. Polsgrove, Secretary.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 25, 1890.

DEAD.

Judge R. A. Thompson No More.

Judge Robert A. Thompson died at his home in South Frankfort, Thursday morning about 4 o'clock. He had been in failing health for about a year, but had only been confined to bed during the past five or six weeks. He was born in Woodford county, August 22, 1828; was educated at the Georgetown College and the Kentucky Military Institute; studied medicine, but never practiced that profession; studied law under Gov. Thomas P. Porter, and in 1851 married Miss Lavina Wingate, daughter of the late Isaac Wingate; in 1853 became a resident of this county; in 1861 volunteered as a private soldier in the Confederate Army; served until the close of the war as Lieutenant and Quartermaster of the Fourth Kentucky Regiment, participating in many battles, and was wounded several times; came home in 1865; was elected Magistrate in the Forks of Elkhorn district, and in 1869 was elected Door-keeper of the House of Representatives, and in 1871-72 elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the same body. In 1870 he was elected presiding judge of the Franklin County Court, and was re-elected every four years until this year, when he failed to receive the nomination of his party. As a judge he was popular, always endeavoring to cultivate a spirit of friendship and compromise between litigants, a gentleman of pleasing manners, and a great favorite with all who knew him. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, corner of Third and Logan streets.

The Paris Trip.

The party of newspaper people who made the trip over the Midland to Paris and return last Friday afternoon, at the invitation of General Ticket and Passenger Agent V. L. Clark, was composed of the following ladies and gentlemen: Mr. and Mrs. Pat McDonald and Miss Jennie McDonald, of the Argus; Mr. J. B. Dryden, of the Evening Journal; Mr. W. R. Thompson, correspondent of the Louisville Commercial; Mr. John Baird, correspondent of the Louisville Post; Mr. George L. Willis, correspondent of the Louisville Times; Mr. W. H. Newhall, correspondent of the Courier-Journal; and wife; Geo. A. Lewis and wife, of the ROUNDABOUT; and Miss Lulu Ware. The trip over was greatly enjoyed, many of the party never having been over the road before to whom the beautiful scenery along the route was very interesting. We were accompanied by Mr. Geo. B. Harper, General Manager, and Mr. V. L. Clark, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, who were untiring in their efforts to make the excursionists enjoy themselves. At the station in Paris we found hacks awaiting us, which had been telegraphed for by Mr. Clark, and spent the hour between trains in driving about the city.

Without making any noise or blow about it, Paris has gone steadily along, improving for the past twenty years, and is enjoying a more substantial, wealthily growth than any town we know of. We saw dozens of handsome new residences going up, and a city has spread out to three times its former size.

city, and is a monument to the public spirit and enterprise of her merchants and citizens who contributed to the fund for its erection. Water pipes were scattered all over the city ready to be laid, and many old buildings familiar to us have long since given place to new and handsome structures. We were glad to see the old town booming, for we have spent many pleasant days among her good people.

The Frankfort people of the party called upon our former fellow-countyman, Postmaster Sam Clay, at the post-office, and found him looking well and hearty, though time has whitened his hair and whiskers. Editor Bruce Champ, of the Bourbon News, was also visited, and he, together with Mrs. Champ and Miss Maggie Clay, accompanied us to the depot. The return trip was made in good time, and the pleasures of the evening were wound up by an elegant supper at the Capital Hotel, at which most of the male portion of the party were entertained by Messrs. Clark and Harper.

To say that the trip was an exceedingly pleasant one is putting it mildly, for everyone expressed themselves as highly delighted with it, and were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Clark for the pleasure afforded.

To Retire.

Mr. F. B. Harper, the noted race-horse man, who owned and trained Longfellow, Ten Broeck, and other celebrated racers, has concluded to sell his fine string of yearlings and retire from the turf.

Another Weather Prophet.

And now comes the musk-rat with a prediction that the coming winter will be a severe one. The knowing ones claim that as he is building his winter home in the creek bottoms higher than usual that it is a never failing sign of a cold winter. Will the goose bone and corn shuck please step to the front and give us their views on the subject?

Wants the Home.

Elizabethtown is making an effort to secure the Soldiers Home, which it is proposed to locate at the old Kentucky Military Institute. The board of directors of that institution have received a proposition from the Elizabethtown people to donate the grounds and contribute a sum sufficient to erect buildings, and if our people expect to secure the Home they will have to contribute liberally to the fund being raised to purchase the K. M. I. property.

Circuit Court.

The Franklin Circuit Court met Monday morning, with Judge Warren Montfort on the bench, when the following grand jury was empaneled and charged: H. I. Todd, foreman, B. S. Hughes, W. A. Moore, Wm. Sanders, R. S. Scanlan, J. W. Watkins, R. S. Peyton, Larry Hannen, Jno. E. Kirtley, Ben Marshall, J. L. Cobb, James W. Heffner, L. J. Cox, Thos. J. Jett, Riley Brewer and Milton Moore. The time of the court has been taken up with the trial of minor cases the entire week.

A new Invention.

According to the Lexington Leader, a Fayette county man by the name of Seley has invented a machine that is a successful hemp-breaker, and that will entirely revolutionize the hemp industry. It will soon be put on the market by the C. Aultman Company, of Canton, Ohio, but will not be sold outright, the owners leasing it for a royalty on the work done by the machine. It will be put on exhibition in a hemp factory at Lexington. It will be known as the Aultman-Seley hemp-breaker.

Jim Wins a Race.

Mr. James Darnell, of this city, won the free for all trotting race at Lancaster, Ohio, on Saturday, with Catherine Leybourn, the mare he is handling this season for other parties. She lost the first three heats, but captured the fourth and fifth, distancing the field in the last heat. Her best time was 2:25 and the purse worth $400.

Mr. Darnell also won second money in two other races—one with Catherine Leybourn and the other with Susie Mac. Kentucky Star, Mr. Geo. H. Watson's horse, which Mr. Darnell is also handling, won the first heat of his race and we shall have the race easily, but we shall have to wait and see.

Sons of the Revolution.

The annual meeting of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution, of Kentucky, was held in the Senate Chamber, in this city, on Wednesday. The election of officers for the ensuing year was held, which resulted as follows:

President - Judge Horatio W. Bruce, of Louisville.

Vice-President, Col. Lewis Buckner, of Louisville.

Secretary - John Buchanan, of Louisville.

Treasurer - Hon. Grant Green, of this city.

Historian - Capt. Ed. Porter Thompson, of this city.

A new constitution and by-laws were adopted, and applications were received for quite a number of new members.

The following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, Since the last annual meeting of this society, John Mason Brown, one of its members, has departed this life.

Resolved, That in the death of our associate we have been deprived of one of our most useful members; his family, of a devoted head, and the State of a son whose life reflected honor upon the Commonwealth. Gilted with a commanding manner and a brilliant intellect, he had enjoyed the advantages of a thorough education, and had steadily risen in his profession, until death found him in its front rank. In similar degree, he had so progressed in sound and moral influence that, although never in public office, within the sphere of his acquaintance and in the community in which he lived, his eminence was conceded, and his counsel followed in all matters pertaining to the public good. No party lines separated him from his fellow-men in effort to advance the interests of society or to promote the welfare of the community. A pronounced party man, difference of political opinion could not narrow the ardor of his personal friendship; a learned and busy lawyer, he was the generous friend of the novitiate at the bar, and the liberal counselor of his friends and the unfortunate in distress. Hand in hand with the exacting duties of his profession, he pursued his classical and literary studies and adorned a life of close professional service by contributions to history, and the graces of a refined intellect.

That one endowed with so many elements of usefulness to his generation should be taken from the scenes of his labor is matter of public regret, even when the allotted space has been measured out by the stern decrees of fate, when we reflect that he had scarce but reached the maturity of his powers.

In every form in which personal friendship or public esteem could manifest itself, the tribute of affection and admiration has been fittingly paid, and it remains for us only to formally add our humble testimonial to his death.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the society, and a copy be furnished to the family of the deceased.

J. STROUD, JOHNSTON, THOMAS SPEED, H. W. BRUCE.

A Little Off.

Although the officials of the Kentucky Midland Railroad strongly deny that any such deal has been made or is contemplated, we are led to believe, by appearances and reliable preliminary information, that a deal has not already under the control of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway System, the new lessees of the Louisville Southern, is so close that the Midland is not a financial success for its present owners and they are, we understand, the parties who are most anxious to make the sale or lease. But like all railroad companies they are going to deny everything until a definite conclusion is arrived at. In the event of the E. T. V. & G. people securing possession of the Midland, an extension of the road from Frankfort to a point on the Louisville Southern near Lawrenceburg, is talked of and will doubtless be built. - Woodford Sun.

We do not know of course, where the Sun man gets his "reliable preliminary information," but we have information of our own, if said information that the young man is mistaken. It is true there was an effort made to get the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia people to lease or buy the road but it failed, and there is not now any trade on had with them, and no probability of any being made.

Such a deal would be a good thing for Frankfort and we would be glad to see it consummated.

J. W. Pruett 33.

At the meeting of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, Masons, Southern Jurisdiction, held at Washington City this week, Mr. J. W. Pruett, of this city, was honored by being elected to receive the thirty-third degree. Mr. Pruett was prevented by important business from attending the session of the Supreme Council and will receive the degree some time in the near future.

C. H. BOGMAN, M. D.

The Eminent Specialist, formerly resident Physician of the Philadelphia General Hospital, Physician in charge of the Ohio Medical Institute, Cincinnati, Ohio, has for twenty five years successfully devoted his time to the treatment of his specialties. He successfully treats all curable cases of Chronic and Nervous Diseases. His treatment is based on the largest experience after thorough educational preparation.

Rheumatism is essentially a disease of the nervous system, and its treatment requires a delicate, acting upon the system as a whole, rather than a local one. The treatment of rheumatism is a delicate art, and one which requires a thorough knowledge of the human system.

Bright's Disease of the Kidneys is the result of faulty action, over exertion, or the use of improper remedies to increase the flow of urine.

Diseases of the Digestive Organs are the most frequent causes of the most fatal diseases. Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Chronic Diarrhea, all result in impaired nutrition, and render life miserable. Early interference is the only remedy of these diseases.

Young Men, who are rapidly approaching manhood and are suffering from the effects of early sexual excess, should be careful to secure the best medical advice. These habits are the result of disordered action, and we cure such cases without delay.

Scalded and Burned Men who observe certain irritations of the bladder and urethra or water passage, with tenderness in the urethra, should seek prompt relief. Such cases are indications of serious weakness which admit of no delay.

Every person consulting us should bring or send four to six ounces of their urine, which we will submit to a thorough microscopic examination and chemical analysis, a certificate and chart of which will be furnished the patient.

We cure all cases which have baffled the skill of other physicians—Why? Because our extensive experience enables us to recognize the causes of disease.

We invite all who have failed to obtain relief elsewhere to consult us. All curable cases are guaranteed.

Patients treated by mail and express. Where possible personal consultation is preferable. List of questions sent free on application.

All cases and correspondence strictly confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of the United States and Canada. Address with stamp for reply.

Good-bye, George.

Dr. George D. Single, wife and daughter, left yesterday afternoon for Pueblo, Colorado, where they will make their home in the future. George Single came to this city about eighteen months ago from Aspen, Colorado, and married Miss Annie Todd Woodson, daughter of Mr. Pickett Woodson, of near this city. He went to work in the ROUNDABOUT establishment, being later accomplished knight of the stick and rule and at once became a favorite with the prints of that shop. He was the life of the Journal and ROUNDABOUT flees, his perpetual smile, bright eyes and genial, jovial manner served to cheer and lighten the tasks of weary printers and fabled drivers. Addition to this he is affectionate, handsome, and as he bade the farewell yesterday, on the eve of departure for the Silver State, a tear stood in his eye as he was on his face; little over a year, he had become attached to Frankfort and Old Kentucky. And no wonder, for did he not come into happy possession of a lovely wife—a true Kentucky woman—while here? And did he not become the happy father of a beautiful little girl, whose brightest heritage in after life will be that she is a daughter of Kentucky? Success to you and yours, George, in the Eldorado of the West.—Evening Journal, Oct. 22.

"OLD TAYLOR"

We heartily endorse the above, for George Single is a clever, good fellow, a splendid printer, and we hope soon to hear that he is prospering in his new home. Of him we can say that which can be said of but few printers, viz: during his stay in this office we never heard a harsh word spoken to him or he speak an unkind word to his fellow-workmen. He was a great favorite with us all and it was with regret that we saw him leave.

Dr. Duval Dead.

Dr. James E. Duval, for many years a well known minister of the Baptist Church, and a practicing physician in this county, died at his home in Monterey, Owen county, on Wednesday night, at the advanced age of 87 years. He was the father-in-law of Capt. Sam Sanders and father of Mr. James T. Duval, formerly of this city. The remains were brought to this city yesterday afternoon and interred in the Cemetery.

Lost His Arm.

Porter Washington, a colored man employed at the Kentucky River Mills, was caught by a belt at that establishment Thursday afternoon and his left arm pulled out of the socket and several of his ribs crushed. The arm was so badly injured that amputation was necessary. He is now lying in a critical condition at his home in this city.

Digestion, secretion, excretion are deranged, the blood becomes watery, the nerves feeble, the countenance ghastly, sleep disturbed and appetite capricious. Terrible is this disease, foliis consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the miasmatic poison, and a certain safeguard against it. In malarial regions of our South and West, in South America, Guatemala and on the Isthmus of Panama, as well as in transmarine countries where the scourge exists, this inimitable preventive and remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Balm, has during the last thirty-five years, been constantly winning the arena of its usefulness, and demonstrating its sovereign value. Liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility are all remedied by it.

The Queen Pays All Expenses.

A GRAND SUCCESS!

Our opening was pronounced by all a "grand success;" our new home was the admiration of our people and the many strangers that came to see us, and we want to thank them all for their many good words and kindly congratulations. We promise this shall be the

PEOPLE'S STORE!

THE PEOPLE'S MART

For CLOTHING, For SHOES, For HATS,
For Furnishing Goods, and for Fine Merchant Tailoring.

We have spared no pains nor expense in the construction and the appointments of this METROPOLITAN STORE. The comforts of buyer and seller are combined, and it will be a pleasure for you to come here. We have given our people what we think we owe to them—nothing is too good for them. Beginning in 1873, with a small room and a comparatively small stock, we have extended our business each year, and, with our syndicate of stores at Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort, our purchasing power is second to none in the Southwest. This means no more nor less than that our merchandise is owned for less than the smaller dealers pay and is sold at less than theirs.

"POPULAR PRICES"

SHALL BE OUR MOTTO IN FUTURE.

The STRICTLY ONE PRICE system that will always prevail in our stores in future should make it THE MART for all.

ONE LOW PRICE TO ALL!

The advantages of the One Price system are many. The One Price system means a low price. If we are willing to sell at a given low price, the article is so marked in plain figures, and no salesman can exact more. You can see the price as well as he. Your child can come here and buy as cheaply as you can. You can buy as cheap as your neighbor, and you never have cause for complaint that any one bought an article at a lower price than you.
